There is one point in Co-operation that is important, and that is getting the co-operation of your employees. Everyone of our employees is a member of the co-operative society. Some were not when they came. None of them was asked or told he had to be a member, but everyone joined. They come and say, You can take a dollar out of my wages and put it in the share fund. We pay everyone good wages and treat them well. There is never a harsh word spoken. If they are not fit they go out. We have no talk. We pay union wages to clerks and $4 more than union wages to the drivers. We pay the overtime that the Union demands. The hours of employment for the people are governed by the law for women employees, and one afternoon off a week is given for longer hours to the men. They all get a week s vacation with pay. We demand courtesy, cleanliness and honesty of our employees. We tell them to treat the customers well--make them feel at home, especially to treat the children well, as they are the ones who are going to be the future co-operators. We never send anything by a child that a grown person would not take. Anything the least damaged is never given to a child. So we have a lot of children coming to our store. The parents are not afraid to send...
