The Wells The Wells Journal of March 7, in Town Council and;ts report Of tne meeting of the Town University extension. Councili contains the following paragraph relating to University Extension: --Miss Livett (Hon. Sec. of the University Extension Committee), in sending a copy of the report for 1f94, and applying for a continuance of the grant of 5. , stated that this grant had enabled the committee to offer tickets for the English History lectures at half-price to assistant teachers in schools, shop-assistants, artisans, and boys and girls under eighteen years of age; and to give a certain number of persons of the-e classes free admission. She was glad to say that fifteen assistant teachers, nineteen shop-assistants and artisans, and about thirteen buys and girls availed themselves of these facilities. Alderman Harte proposed that the grant be conlinued. Alderman Slater seconded the proposal, and remarked that Miss Livetts report was very encouraging. The grant would be money well spent, as it would give assistance in ll1e education of thoe who otherwise could not afford to attend the lectures. The motion was carried.
