Excerpt: . . . of first-stage religion, for the reduction of the body. If the child is practiced carefully, at his food, in deferring to superiors and seniors; in the restraint of haste, or greediness; in the proprieties of positions, and the handsome use of tools; in the limitation of his feeding by his wants, and a goodnatured submission to restriction when restriction is needed for his good; he will not grow sensual in that manner, but his mind will be all the while getting sovereignty over the body. Good breeding and civility are, in this view, indispensable. --Mary D. Rogers. The Question Of Dress. How shall we dress our children We women who are practical and unpretentious, find that some of our neighbors who are not nearly so well-meaning dress their babies much more attractively. Need our children wear unbecoming and severe things because their mothers have common...
