Thou shalt have The judgment of the church within a week--Prepare thee for the worst, for, be assured, No mercy will be shewn to such as thee--The wholesome laws, made in king Henry s time, (Through that good man, Arundel,) are revived, And must be put in force. DR. TAYLOR. I know, my lord, That, vampire-like, ye seek to suck my blood--Well, thou shalt have it, if God willeth so; For ye can do no more than he permits; Though his permission will not thee release From murther foul that s boiling in thy mind. Mark ye my words before it is too late, That God will surely visit ye for this, If not in this, for certes in world to come. DURHAM. Good master Doctor, we all wish thee well, And earnestly advise thee for thy good! Thou art a...
