A few weeks later I made my debut before u public audience at Caserta, singing alternately in Faust and Cavalleria. The morning after a performance I made it a habit of sending at once for all the reliable daily papers. Then I read over and over every criticism, favorable or unfavorable, regarding my performance. If I find the critic is a man of musical discrimination I attempt to apply all he suggests to my next performance. Otherwise, if the critic appears to be careless and indifferent, complimenting and finding fault without justification, I do not pay much attention to him. I unfold the rest of the paper and read the news. STUDIO HINTS FOR VOCAL STUDENTS, ORIGINAL AND SELECTED. BY FREDERIC 8. LAW. The Human voice is really the foundation of all music.--Wagner.
