Dr. Baker.--Dr. Croop has covered this subject very thoroughly. We have found it advantageous in using a different mouthpiece on this apparatus. We have been using the one from the pulmotor and get better results. It is important that care be taken in doing these tests. The sodium bicarbonate tolerance test is very important. Dr. Geist.--I have nothing to add to the paper but want to express my admiration to Dr. Croop who has been so patient in getting a paper so complete. I think chemistry is one of the most important studies in our line. Some years ago I read a book on the chemistry of commerce, explaining the making of silk from cellulose, ec., which bears reading; another book by McCloud on physiology and chemistry, giving the clinical changes and the exactness in which they occur,...
